Chapter 11

Case No.: 23-18405-JKS

Hearing Date: October 2, 2024 at 10:00 a.m.

FIRST INTERIM FEE APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES RENDERED AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES INCURRED BY SCARINCI HOLLENBECK, COUNSEL TO THE DEBTOR AND DEBTOR-IN-POSSESSION

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 328, 330 and 331 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), Rule 2016-1 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules") and Guidelines Governing Procedures for Payment of Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses to Professionals Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 105(a) and 331, as adopted by General Order dated March 31, 2003 (the "Guidelines"), Scarinci Hollenbeck, LLC (the "Scarinci Firm") counsel to Nest Global Solutions, LLC, the above-captioned debtor and debtor-in-possession (the "Debtor"), respectfully submits this First Interim Fee Application (the "Application") for an allowance of $162,569.50 for professional services rendered, and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in the amount of $6,086.93 for the period November 14, 2023 through July 31, 2024 (the "Fee Period"). In support of the Application the Debtor states as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. On September 26, 2023 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.
2. The Debtor has remained in possession of its property and continues in the management of its business as a debtor-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.
3. On November 30, 2023 the Debtor filed an application with this Court seeking to employ the Scarinci Firm as counsel to the Debtor. [Dkt. No. 27]. The Court approved the application on December 13, 2023 [Dkt. No. 31]. A copy of the December 13, 2023 Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".
4. The Debtor's Chapter 11 filing was precipitated by the Debtor's inability to close upon a financing transaction which would have provided the Debtor sufficient cash flow to continue development of its technology and ongoing operations. In addition, the Debtor was facing two (2) separate lawsuits in the Superior Court of New Jersey asserting claims by former employees pursuant to the New Jersey Wage Claims Statute (collectively, the "Wage Claims" or "Wage Claim Actions").

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

5. During the Fee Period, the Scarinci Firm devoted substantial time and resources to addressing the Debtor's various legal issues between the Debtor's retention of the Scarinci Firm on or about December 1, 2023 and July 31, 2024. The Scarinci Firm further addressed the following critical issues: (i) reviewed the docket sheets of the Wage Claim Actions regarding their litigation history in the Superior Court; (ii) prepared Notices of Removal for filing with the Court, including the retrieval of pleadings filed in the Superior Court in the Wage Claim Actions and filing same with the Bankruptcy Court; (iii) prepared pleadings for retaining the Scarinci Firm, the Debtor's accountant and the Debtor's intellectual property broker for purposes of selling the Debtor's intellectual property; (iv) opposed the application of Ivy Hill seeking relief from the automatic stay; and (v) drafted and filed an extensive motion seeking to dismiss the Wage Claim Actions.

6. Based on the foregoing, and as set forth more fully herein, the Scarinci Firm submits that its efforts during the Fee Period have provided a substantial benefit to the Debtor's estate. Therefore, the Scarinci Firm respectfully requests that this Court approve the Application in its entirety.

JURISDICTION

7. The Court has jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference entered by the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey dated September 18, 2012. The Application is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

8. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 328, 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2016 and Local Rule 2016-1.

9. This is the Scarinci Firm's First Fee Application for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses in this case. The Scarinci Firm has not previously submitted an application for compensation herein.

10. By this Application, the Scarinci Firm seeks approval and payment of its fees in the amount of $162,569.50 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses in the sum of $6,086.93 incurred during the Fee Period.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES RENDERED

11. As more fully described herein, the Scarinci Firm provided comprehensive legal services to the Debtor during the Fee Period. Attached hereto as Exhibit "B" are detailed summaries of the time expended by the Scarinci Firm as counsel to the Debtor during the Fee Period.

12. During the Fee Period, the Scarinci Firm incurred expenses totaling $6,086.93. An itemization of the expenses incurred for which reimbursement is sought is set forth on the Fee Application Cover Sheet.

13. Set forth below is a narrative of the legal services provided to the Debtor by the Scarinci Firm during the Fee Period. The summary of services performed by the Scarinci Firm only highlights the general categories of services provided by the Scarinci Firm on the Debtor's behalf and is not intended to set forth each item of professional services that the Scarinci Firm performed for the Debtor. All of the services for which compensation is sought herein were performed on behalf of the Debtor.

SUMMARY OF APPLICATION

14. The Scarinci Firm submits that compensation for the services rendered and reimbursement of expenses as set forth in this Application incurred is reasonable based on: (i) the time and labor required; (ii) the complexity of the legal questions presented; (iii) the skill required to perform the legal services; (iv) the customary compensation for professionals in New Jersey; and (v) the experience and ability of the attorneys providing services. With respect to each of these standards, the Scarinci Firm submits that the compensation requested is reasonable and appropriate.

15. During the Fee Period, the Scarinci Firm provided the following services to the Debtor:

- a. The Scarinci Firm conferred with the Debtor, discussed and reviewed the Debtor's assets and liabilities, the Debtor's business and various pending litigation, including the Wage Claim Actions.
- b. The Scarinci Firm reviewed the voluntary Chapter 11 petition filed by the Debtor prior to the Scarinci Firm's retention.
- c. The Scarinci Firm reviewed the application of the Warren Law Group, the Debtor's prior counsel, to be retained as counsel to the Debtor. In addition, the Scarinci Firm reviewed the objection of the United States Trustee to the Debtor's proposed retention of the Warren Law Group.
- d. The Scarinci Firm engaged in discussions with the Office of the United States Trustee ("UST") and the Warren Law Group with respect to resolving the UST's objection to the retention of counsel.
- e. Subsequently, the Scarinci Firm communicated with the UST in order to ensure that all of the UST's required documents and other requirements were either fulfilled or otherwise being addressed.
- f. The Scarinci Firm drafted and filed various applications seeking to retain several professionals, including the retention of the Scarinci Firm, the retention of Jonathan Stone as the Debtor's accountant, and the retention of IPAPPROACH as the Debtor's broker for the sale of its intellectual property.
- g. The Scarinci Firm assisted the Debtor in locating a bank that was willing to establish a debtor-in-possession bank account on the Debtor's behalf.
- h. The Scarinci Firm reviewed the proofs of claim filed on behalf of the multiple plaintiffs in the Wage Claim Actions in order to understand the nature and amount thereof.

- i. The Scarinci Firm reviewed the litigation in the two (2) Wage Claim Actions that had been pending in the Superior Court of New Jersey for approximately 1 year and 3 years, respectively.
- j. The Scarinci Firm engaged in communications with Ivy Hill, the holder of a small claim secured by the Debtor's intellectual property. Thereafter, the Scarinci Firm received and reviewed Ivy Hill's application seeking relief from the automatic stay.
- k. The Scarinci Firm served discovery upon Ivy Hill for purposes of defending its stay relief application. In addition, the Scarinci Firm drafted and filed pleadings in opposition to the Ivy Hill stay relief application. As a consequence of such actions, Ivy Hill's application was denied subject to payment of modest monthly adequate protection payments.
- l. The Scarinci Firm communicated with counsel regarding consolidating the two (2) Wage Claim Actions, and thereafter, prepared and filed the necessary pleadings for obtaining such relief. As a result, pursuant to an Order dated June 6, 2024 the two (2) Wage Claim Actions were consolidated before this Court.
- m. The Scarinci Firm attended pre-trial conferences regarding the Wage Claim Action. In addition, the Scarinci Firm communicated with counsel regarding the terms of an appropriate pre-trial order and the selection of a mediator. Thereafter, the Scarinci Firm drafted the agreed upon pre-trial and mediation orders and arranged for entry thereof by the Court.
- n. The Scarinci Firm researched, drafted and filed a motion seeking to dismiss the Wage Claim Actions.
- o. The Scarinci Firm engaged in communications with various creditors and other parties-in-interest regarding the status of Debtor's Chapter 11 case.

- p. The Scarinci Firm attended several status conferences scheduled by the Court regarding this matter.
- q. The Scarinci Firm received, reviewed and arranged for filing the Debtor's monthly operating reports on a continuing basis.
- r. The Scarinci Firm regularly communicated with the Debtor, the UST, and other professionals regarding the progress of the Debtor's case.

APPLICABLE LEGAL STANDARDS

16. Section 330(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides for the compensation of reasonable and necessary services rendered by professionals retained under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code, as follows:

(1)(A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the . . . attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and

(B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

(3) In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to ...a professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including —

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a).

17. Moreover, section 503(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code provides for payment of allowed professional compensation as an administrative expense, as follows:

After notice and a hearing, there shall be allowed administrative expenses . . . including . . . compensation and reimbursement awarded under section 330(a) of this title . . .

U.S.C. § 503(b)(2)

18. Although the Supreme Court has not ruled on the proper method for determining reasonable fees under section 330(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court has established guidelines generally applicable to awards of attorneys' fees under other federal statutes which require that the fee awarded be reasonable. See Pennsylvania v. Delaware Valley Citizens' Council for Clean Air, 478 U.S. 546 (1986) (construing standards for award of fees under section 304(d) of the Clean Air Act) ("Delaware Valley I"); Pennsylvania v. Delaware Valley Citizens' Council for Clean Air, 483 U.S. 711 (1987) ("Delaware Valley II"). In Delaware Valley I, the court concluded that the "lodestar" approach to determining fees for services performed, as articulated in Lindy Bros. Builders, Inc. v. American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp., 487 F.2d 161 (3d. Cir. 1973), was preferable to other, more subjective methods, stating that "the 'lodestar' figure includes most, if not all, of the relevant factors comprising reasonable attorneys' fees." 478 U.S. at 566.

A. Market Approach Based on Section 330 Factors

19. The Third Circuit has found that a "market approach" should be applied to fee applications similar to the lodestar approach, stating that "§330 by no means ossifies the lodestar approach as the point of departure in fee determinations", however "the product of an hourly rate by the number of hours worked to this day remains the overwhelmingly prevailing billing method within the market for most legal services." In re Busy Beaver Bldg. Centers, Inc., 19 F.3d 833, 856 (3d Cir. 1994). The Busy Beaver court observed that four of the five factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code "essentially provide the basis for computing the 'reasonable hourly rate' used in the 'lodestar' calculations . . .", and the fifth factor, "the time spent on such services — is a sibling of the lodestar approach's reasonable hours component." Id. at 849. Taking into account the circumstances of the chapter 11 case, the relevant factors and the results achieved, the Scarinci Firm submits that its fees and expenses in this chapter 11 case are reasonable and should be allowed in the amounts requested.

20. Time Spent on Services. As is set forth more fully above and in the detailed time records annexed hereto as Exhibit B, the Scarinci Firm has expended a total of 310.20 hours in rendering legal services to the Debtor during the Fee Period. The Scarinci Firm respectfully submits that the hours worked were reasonable and necessary given the numerous issues which arose during the Debtor's case.

21. Rates Charged for Services. The rates being charged by the Scarinci Firm are commensurate with, if not less than, those typically charged by other firms in the District of New Jersey.

22. Services Necessary to Case Administration. As described above, each of the services rendered by the Scarinci Firm were necessary and contributed to the successful outcomes achieved to date in this chapter 11 case.

23. Services Performed Within Reasonable Amount of Time. The Scarinci Firm submits that the services rendered were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue or task addressed. Whether reviewed individually as to each of the tasks described above or collectively as a whole, the time expended by the Scarinci Firm has been reasonable and efficient to accomplish the needs of the Debtor in this chapter 11 case.

24. Compensation Reasonable Based on Customary Rates of Comparable Practitioners. The Scarinci Firm submits that the rates charged in this chapter 11 case are comparable to the rates of comparably skilled practitioners in non-bankruptcy matters consistent with the Busy Beaver court's guidance that fee applications should be reviewed for "whether non-bankruptcy attorneys typically charge and collect from their clients fees for that particular service when performed by a member of that profession, and the rates charged and collected therefor." Busy Beaver Bldg. Centers, 19 F.3d at 849.

B. Johnson Factors

25. The Third Circuit has also held that the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code are not exclusive, and that a bankruptcy court should take into account "all relevant factors" in determining the reasonableness of the fees under the circumstances of a particular case. See In re Lan Assocs. XI, L.P., 192 F.3d 109, 123 (3d Cir. 1999) ("[W]e hold that the factors enumerated in section § 330(a) are not all-inclusive."). Accordingly, applying the twelve factor test of Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974), which continues to be considered by many courts, would also warrant this Court's allowance of the full amounts sought herein.

26. Time, Nature and Extent of Services, Results Obtained and Related Factors. The foregoing summary description, together with the exhibits attached hereto, details the time, nature and extent of the professional services rendered by the Scarinci Firm for the benefit of the Debtor and its estate. Further, the Scarinci Firm believes that the time spent was justified by the results that have been achieved thus far.

27. The Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly. In order to perform the services and obtain the results required in its representation of the Debtor, substantial legal skill and experience in the areas of representing debtors in Chapter 11 cases was required by the Scarinci Firm.

28. Preclusion of Other Employment. Adequate representation of the Debtor in the chapter 11 case required a substantial commitment of the resources of the Scarinci Firm. Various matters in this case required the Scarinci Firm to devote considerable time, often to the preclusion of expending time on other active matters within the Scarinci Firm.

29. Time Limitations or Other Circumstances. From the outset of this case, several of the matters in this case have required the necessity for rapid resolutions on an expedited basis. The Scarinci Firm worked diligently to ensure that Debtor's Chapter 11 case proceeded apace.

30. The Customary Fee. The amount requested by the Scarinci Firm is well within the range of customary compensation awarded to other professionals with similar experience in the District of New Jersey. The hourly rates charged by the Scarinci Firm are equal to or less than those charged by and paid to other professionals with similar experience in other cases of similar complexity within the District.

31. Awards in Similar Cases. The amount requested by the Scarinci Firm is not unreasonable in terms of awards in cases of similar size and complexity. The compensation requested by the Scarinci Firm comports with the mandate of the Bankruptcy Code, which directs that services be evaluated in light of comparable services performed in non-bankruptcy cases in the community. The hourly rates requested by the Scarinci Firm are utilized with respect to the Scarinci Firm's non-bankruptcy clients.

32. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent. As in any chapter 11 case, the Scarinci Firm's compensation in this matter is ultimately contingent and subject to the approval of the Court.

33. The Experience, Reputation and Ability of the Attorneys. The Scarinci Firm has extensive experience representing debtors in chapter 11 cases.

34. It is respectfully submitted that whether the Court applies the market-based approach applied by the Busy Beaver court or includes a review of the Johnson factors in accordance with the Lan Associates court's guidance, the fees sought by the Scarinci Firm are reasonable and appropriate.

CONCLUSION

35. Prior to the Scarinci Firm's retention it received a retainer of $111,269.50, which amount remains on deposit in the Scarinci Firm's trust account.

36. The Scarinci Firm has worked diligently during the Fee Period to assist the Debtor with retaining appropriate professionals, interacting with the Debtor's creditor and parties in interest, removing the Wage Claim Actions to the Bankruptcy Court, consolidating same, monitoring the Debtor's efforts to sell its Intellectual Property, defending the Wage Claim Actions and seeking to bring the Debtor's case to a successful conclusion.

37. Accordingly, the Scarinci Firm submits that its services have provided substantial value to the Debtor's estate and requests that this Application be approved in its entirety.

NOTICE

38. Notice of this Application has been provided to: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the Debtor; (c) counsel for Ivy Hill, and (d) counsel involved in the Wage Claim Actions. The Debtor respectfully submits that further notice of this Application is neither required nor necessary.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth herein, the Scarinci Firm respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order (a) approving final compensation for professional services rendered in the interim amount of $162,569.50 and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $6,086.93 for the period from November 14, 2023 through July 31, 2024; and (b) granting such other relief as the Court deems is just and proper.
